

2016 Annual Review

Empowering Lives Building Communities

Welcome

As fiscal year 2016 concluded, I found it important to reflect back on the challenges and successes of 2016. This year was a time of exciting growth and challenges at the Lincoln Park Community Shelter (LPCS), and I am proud to present our inaugural Annual Review 2016 to you, our dedicated and passionate supporters. This report will allow you to learn more about the great accomplishments of our staff, volunteers, and Guests. Throughout the year, we carried out our mission of “bringing communities together to empower homeless men and women to make and sustain life changes.” We saw nearly 70% of Guests transition to housing this year, and we increased our permanent supportive housing program to 17 residents!

LPCS is not religiously affiliated, and is completely privately funded. Truly a community-based organization, we operate on a modest budget (see page 7) and rely largely on the support of over 1,500 volunteers each year who serve as meal providers and overnight supervisors. Today, a full-time staff of nine professionals empower more than 400 homeless men and women yearly with educational programs and personal counseling in a supportive, secure, and healthy environment so they can make positive life changes and become vital members of our community. The plight of homelessness is still among us, and LPCS will continue our work until every man and woman is safe, warm, and off the streets. From the LPCS Board of Directors, staff, and myself, THANK YOU for your companionship and steadfast commitment.

Best regards,

Dan Hula, Executive Director

“I am very grateful for all that I have received and been part of here at LPCS.

There is nothing, within reason, that I would not do for this facility, for any of the staff, for any of the volunteers, or for any of the Guests!”

—LPCS Guest

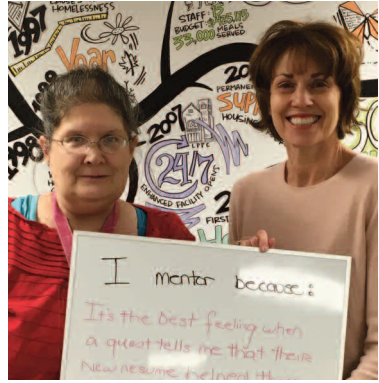

Our Mission

The Lincoln Park Community Shelter (LPCS) brings communities together to empower homeless men and women to make and sustain life changes.

Vision

- We will provide a holistic continuum of services that removes barriers and increases self-sufficiency.
- We will be a leader and innovator in creating solutions to homelessness in our community.
- We believe that every person in our community has a stake in and can contribute to ending homelessness.

What We Do

Interim Housing Community: Serves up to 35 Guests each night year-round—24 men and 11 women. In addition to meals and a safe living space, it provides storage, showers, and laundry facilities for Guests.

On Track Program: Challenges Guests to address the reasons for homelessness and barriers to self-sufficiency by setting general guidelines that empowers them to plan for the future and break the cycle of homelessness.

Independent Community Living Program: Provides 17 permanent housing units operated under LPCS’ sister organization, Independent Community Living, LLC and funded through matching grants from HUD and local foundations.

Graduate Community: Offers Guests of LPCS who have secured permanent housing access to continued services, guidance, and support of LPCS.

Community Engagement Program: Provides safe refuge for people in need of assistance as referred by local churches, hospitals, and police.

Meet Howard

Howard, 63 years old, is from Chicago with two grown daughters. In 2013 and 2014, he was a Guest at LPCS.

Howard places the death of one of his closest friends as the catalyst that led to his homelessness. In the weeks that followed, three other loved ones died. The deaths hit Howard hard; he decided that life was too short to work at a job that he hated, so he quit and started looking for something else. Then he was diagnosed with Parkinson's. Without income, he started looking into shelters. After moving into LPCS, he was able to “start to putting the bad stuff behind me.”

Howard's first months at LPCS were hard, especially living with 34 other people. He laughingly compares the personalities and interactions as belonging on a sitcom—he jokes, maybe he'll be the one to write it. The closeness extended to sad times too. He felt intense worry when other residents didn't return for the night, or slipped back into an addiction. “Even people that are really irritating you, they're still your family.”

As a graduate, Howard continues to have a relationship with LPCS. Howard's advice: “Use the time at LPCS to work through your problems—and be grateful.”

Meet Daniel & Arthur

Daniel became a volunteer at LPCS in the summer of 2015. He currently serves as a technology coach and recently joined the Associate Board. Arthur is 63 years old and became a resident of the Independent Community Living Program at LPCS in September of 2013. Daniel began working with Arthur in early 2016.

“Arthur and I have worked together since the start of this year, and over the course of that period, Arthur has made significant improvements. His drive and willingness to learn about how to use email and the internet created a strong foundation of knowledge about computer basics. Arthur is continuing to learn about computers by starting a computer class, which meets for 2 hours a day, for 5 days a week. He is also taking Spanish classes. I admire Arthur's commitment to continued learning and personal growth.”
